

Investment Evolution Corporation Group (IEC) Signs EUR 100M Loan Agreement with PKF PCC

Seychelles – (6 April 2021) – Investment Evolution Corporation (MERJ: IEC) announces its wholly-owned subsidiary, Investment Evolution Limited, has signed a 5-year €100 million loan agreement with PKF PCC. The loan agreement period continues from 1 April 2021 until 31 March 2026 and loan proceeds will be used to fund the planned significant expansion of IEC Credit, IEC’s consumer credit business that provides consumer loans in Spain via its online lending platform www.ieccredit.es.

Paul Mathieson, IEC’s Founder and major shareholder said, “The €100 million loan agreement with PKF PCC is the culmination of the tenacious efforts by the Investment Evolution team and will allow IEC to realise its significant potential. I believe this loan agreement is the most important development in IEC’s history that will fuel significant and rapid growth in its Spain lending business.”

To fund the IEC loan agreement, PKF Capital Markets (Seychelles) Limited will invest their own capital and issue an additional PKF PCC fixed interest bond series to its institutional and high net-worth private clients. PKF PCC also plans to list this additional PKF PCC bond series on the Seychelles Stock Exchange, MERJ Exchange Limited (MERJ), later in 2021.

“We are delighted to welcome PKF PCC as an institutional investor in IEC” said Sam Prasad, IEC’s Executive Chairman and CEO. “This €100 million loan agreement and PKF PCC bond series provides IEC with a strong capital base to execute the substantial growth planned for IEC Credit in 2021 and beyond.”

Justin Porteous, PKF PCC Investment Manager said, “We are excited to be investing and partnering with IEC to facilitate the growth of their Spain lending business via our loan agreement and PKF PCC fixed interest bond series.”
